

The brew-house of Michiel Jansen (Vreeland), of Gamoenepa, (Communipaw): built in the rear of the house and lot which he bought from Marcus Hendricksen Vogelsang, April 4, 1656 (see No. 20, infra). His widow, Fijtje Hartmans, sold it to Meindert Barenzen, the cooper, October 1, 1663.—Liber Deeds, B: 25; Deeds & Conveyances (etc.), 1659–1664, trans. by O'Callaghan, 334–5.

For Michiel Jansen, see Block J, No. 14.

The long, narrow, garden between Nos. 16 and 17, which, in 1660, was planted with eight small trees, belonged to a free negress, Susanna Anthony Robberts. Her house had, evidently, been demolished for some time, but she was still living, for she is recorded, on February 14, 1661, as having hired out her brother, Jochim Anthony Robberts, to Wolphert Webber.—Register of Solomon La Chaire, trans. by O'Callaghan, 18. One Anthony Sarley, of the Bowery, conveyed the property of Ahasuerus Fromantel, December 11, 1691.—Liber Deeds, IX: 223 (Albany).

Between Susanna's lot, which was only 31 feet, 6 inches wide, and the brew-house, was a small lot, which Megapolensis sold to Sarah, widow of Hans Hansen, delivering the deed March 10, 1663.—Patents, II: 163 (Albany).

Susanna's ground is now a part of 52–54 Beaver Street. The brew-house stood on the Beaver Street side of the Delmonico Building.
